

Strutture geometriche rivestite in cemento bianco, grigio chiaro o grigio scuro, o in abete carbonizzato a seconda della misura (fare riferimento ai disegni tecnici sotto riportati).

Con il tempo è possibile che si formino delle micro fessure, caratteristiche delle superfici in cemento. Il processo di carbonizzazione del legno crea una tipica patina superficiale; è possibile che piccole porzioni della stessa si stacchino.

Geometric structures covered with white, light grey or dark grey concrete, or in charred fir according to size (please refer to the technical drawings here below).

With the passing of time some micro-cracks may create, which are peculiar for cement surfaces. The wood charring process causes the creation of a typical superficial coat; it is possible that some small parts of that coat will detouch from the piece of wood itself.
